and significant infrastructure already in place.

The master planned community also includes St. Charles Towne Center, a 1.1 million square foot regional mall, and several village centers and neighborhood commercial districts. St. Charles is home to the largest sector of private employment in Charles County and the most successful retail, commercial, and industrial parks in Southern Maryland. With mass transit, pedestrian friendly walking paths, dozens of fine restaurants, neighborhood schools, a state of the art baseball and entertainment facility, and much more, St. Charles is experienced and shovel ready to continue to be a model for planned development for decades to come.

St. Charles, located in Southern Maryland, is considered one of the most successful planned communities in the country. It is zoned to include 24,730 housing units in five villages; Smallwood, Westlake, Fairway, Wooded Glen, and Piney Reach. The first two, Smallwood and Westlake are fully completed, and ACPT is currently completing Fairway Village with three neighborhoods: Sheffield, Heritage, and Gleneagles, all with major roadways
